Community Stewardship Above and Beyond Expectations

XJet™ Gives Back to the Community by Providing Charitable Contributions and Organizational

Centennial, CO, February 2, 2007- XJet, the worlds most innovative and exclusive private aviation program believes in great community involvement. Fostered by the commitment to give back to the communities it serves, XJet has taken a proactive approach to supporting events and contributing to local charitable organizations. Recently, XJet participated in the overall fund raising campaigns for ACE (Alliance for Choice in Education), Colorado Uplift, and Sun Gate Kids.

"Contributing back to the communities that support us is just the right thing to do," says Josh Stewart, President and CEO for XJet. "The culture at XJet is about giving to others and never forgetting about those who may be less fortunate than us. Children are our future and they deserve every opportunity, regardless of their background."
